Chapter 5. The Countries Differ in Size .....	77
Chapter 6. The Countries Differ in Behaviour .....	81
Chapter 7. The Monetary Union of Three Countries .....	85

Part Three. Inflation and Unemployment:
The Monetary Union as a Whole ..... 89

Chapter 1. The Model..... 91

1. The Model of Inflation and Unemployment ..... 91
2. The Loss Function of the European Central Bank..... 92
3. Policy Model A ..... 93
4. Policy Model B ..... 94
5. Policy Model C ..... 95
6. Policy Model D ..... 96

Chapter 2. Some Numerical Examples ..... 98

1. Weight of Inflation in Loss Function is 0.5 ..... 98
2. Weight of Inflation in Loss Function is 0.75 ..... 104
3. Weight of Inflation in Loss Function is 1 ..... 106

Chapter 3. Monetary Policy in the Phillips Curve Diagram..... 109

Part Four. Inflation and Unemployment: The Monetary Union of Two Countries .....	113
Chapter 1. Monetary Policy in Europe .....	115
1. The Model of Inflation and Unemployment .....	115
2. The Loss Function of the European Central Bank.....	117
3. The Policy Model.....	118
4. Another Version of the Policy Model.....	120
5. Some Numerical Examples.....	121
Chapter 2. Fiscal Policies in Germany and France .....	127
1. The Model of Inflation and Unemployment .....	127
2. The Loss Functions of National Governments .....	129
3. The Policy Model.....	130
4. Another Version of the Policy Model.....	132
5. Some Numerical Examples.....	133
Chapter 3. Central Bank and Governments Decide Sequentially .....	137
1. The Dynamic Model .....	137
2. Some Numerical Examples.....	141
Chapter 4. Central Bank and Governments Cooperate .....	151
1. The Model of Inflation and Unemployment .....	151
2. The Loss Function.....	152
3. The Policy Model.....	153
4. Another Version of the Policy Model.....	155
5. Some Numerical Examples.....	157
Chapter 5. Central Bank and Governments Differ in Loss Function .....	166
1. The Dynamic Model .....	166
2. Some Numerical Examples.....	168

Appendix: Some Basic Models .....	175
1. Monetary Policy in Europe .....	175
2. Fiscal Policies in Germany and France.....	180
3. Central Bank and Governments Decide Sequentially.....	183
4. Central Bank and Governments Cooperate .....	190
Conclusion .....	197
1. The Monetary Union as a Whole .....	197
2. The Monetary Union of Two Countries .....	200
2.1. Monetary Policy in Europe .....	200
2.2. Fiscal Policies in Germany and France.....	203
2.3. Central Bank and Governments Decide Sequentially.....	204
2.4. Central Bank and Governments Cooperate.....	209
2.5. Central Bank and Governments Differ in Loss Function .....	213
Result .....	217
1. Monetary Policy in Europe .....	217
2. Fiscal Policies in Germany and France.....	218
3. Central Bank and Governments Decide Sequentially.....	219
4. Central Bank and Governments Cooperate .....	221
