

EC Consumer Law Compendium

EC Consumer Law Compendium

The Consumer Acquis and its transposition in the Member State

Edited by

Hans Schulte-Nölke

Christian Twigg-Flesner

Martin Ebers

sellier.
european law publishers

The EU Consumer Law Compendium has been prepared under a contract with the European Commission by the University of Bielefeld (Germany) for DG Health & Consumer Protection (http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/cons_int/safe_shop/acquis/index_en.htm).

It represents the views of the contractor or authors. These views set out in this book have not been adopted or in any way endorsed by the Commission and should not be relied upon as a statement of the views of the Commission. In particular, the views expressed by the authors on the adequacy of national transpositions measures are without prejudice to the opinions of the Commission. The Commission does not guarantee the accuracy of the data included in this Compendium, nor does it accept responsibility for any use made thereof.

ISBN 978-3-86653-063-8

The Deutsche Nationalbibliothek lists this publication in the Deutsche Nationalbibliografie; detailed bibliographic data are available in the Internet at <http://dnb.d-nb.de>.

© 2008 European Communities, 2007. Published by sellier. european law publishers, Munich.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, translated, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photo-copying, recording or otherwise, without prior permission of the publisher.

Design: Sandra Sellier, Munich. Production: Karina Hack, Munich. Printing and binding: Friedrich Pustet KG, Regensburg. Printed on acid-free, non-ageing paper. Printed in Germany.

General Overview

Introduction	1
Contributors to the Project
1. General Co-ordinator of the Consumer Law Compendium Project	5
2. Editors of the Comparative Analysis	5
3. Co-Authors	5
4. Language and Editing Work	6
5. Database Team	6
6. National correspondents contributing to the project	7
7. Independent Evaluator appointed by the Commission	9
8. Acquis Group	9
Part I:
Overview of the Member States' Legislative Techniques
A. Austria – Legislative techniques	10
B. Belgium – Legislative techniques	13
C. Cyprus – Legislative techniques	17
D. Czech Republic – Legislative techniques	19
E. Denmark – Legislative techniques	21
F. Estonia – Legislative techniques	24
G. Finland – Legislative techniques	26
H. France – Legislative techniques	28
I. Germany – Legislative techniques	30
J. Greece – Legislative techniques	34
K. Hungary – Legislative techniques	37
L. Ireland – Legislative techniques	41
M. Italy – Legislative techniques	43
N. Latvia – Legislative techniques	46
O. Lithuania – Legislative techniques	48
P. Luxembourg – Legislative techniques	50
Q. Malta – Legislative techniques	52
R. Netherlands – Legislative techniques	55
S. Poland – Legislative techniques	58
T. Portugal – Legislative techniques	62
U. Slovakia – Legislative techniques	64
V. Slovenia – Legislative techniques	67
W. Spain – Legislative techniques	69
X. Sweden – Legislative techniques	73
Y. United Kingdom – Legislative techniques	76

Part 2:

Transposition of the individual Directives

A. Doorstep Selling Directive (85/577)	79
B. Package Travel Directive (90/314)	108
C. Unfair Contract Terms Directive (93/13)	197
D. Timeshare Directive (94/47)	262
E. Distance Selling Directive (97/7)	307
F. Price Indication Directive (98/6)	364
G. Injunctions Directive (98/27)	383
H. Consumer Sales Directive (99/44)	407

Part 3:

Common structures in the Directives

A. The notion of “consumer”	453
B. The notion of “business”	465
C. Right of withdrawal	471
D. Information duties	482

Part 4:

Recommendations	497
------------------------	-----

Annex A:

Abbreviations	505
----------------------	-----

Annex B:

European Community Sources of Law	509
--	-----

Annex C:

National Legislation	515
-----------------------------	-----

Contents

General Overview	V
Introduction	1
Contributors to the Project
1. General Co-ordinator of the Consumer Law Compendium Project	5
2. Editors of the Comparative Analysis	5
3. Co-Authors	5
4. Language and Editing Work	6
5. Database Team	6
6. National correspondents contributing to the project	7
7. Independent Evaluator appointed by the Commission	9
8. Acquis Group	9
Part I:
Overview of the Member States' Legislative Techniques
A. Austria – Legislative techniques	10
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	11
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	11
III. Timeliness of transposition	11
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	11
V. Other extensions	11
VI. Possible infringements of EC Law	12
B. Belgium – Legislative techniques	13
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	14
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	14
III. Timeliness of transposition	15
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	15
V. Other extensions	15
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	16
C. Cyprus – Legislative techniques
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	17
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	18
III. Timeliness of transposition	18
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	18

V. Other extensions	19
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	19
D. Czech Republic – Legislative techniques	19
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	20
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	20
III. Timeliness of transposition	20
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	21
V. Other extensions	21
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	21
E. Denmark – Legislative techniques	21
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before the transposition	22
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	22
III. Timeliness of transposition	23
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	23
V. Other extensions	23
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	24
F. Estonia – Legislative techniques	24
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	24
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	25
III. Timeliness of transposition	25
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	25
V. Other extensions	25
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	26
G. Finland – Legislative techniques	26
I. State of the consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	26
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	27
III. Timeliness of transposition	27
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	27
V. Other extensions	28
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	28
H. France – Legislative techniques	28
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	29
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	29
III. Timeliness of transposition	29
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	30
V. Other extensions	30
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	30
I. Germany – Legislative techniques	30
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	32
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	32
III. Timeliness of transposition	33
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	33

V. Other extensions	34
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	34
J. Greece – Legislative techniques	34
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	35
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	35
III. Timeliness of transposition	36
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	36
V. Other extensions	36
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	37
K. Hungary – Legislative techniques	37
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	39
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	39
III. Timeliness of transposition	39
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	40
V. Other extensions	40
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	41
L. Ireland – Legislative techniques	41
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	42
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	42
III. Timeliness of transposition	42
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	42
V. Other extensions	43
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	43
M. Italy – Legislative techniques	43
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	44
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	45
III. Timeliness of transposition	45
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	45
V. Other extensions	45
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	46
N. Latvia – Legislative techniques
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	46
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	47
III. Timeliness of transposition	47
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	47
V. Other extensions	47
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	48
O. Lithuania – Legislative techniques	48
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	49
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	49
III. Timeliness of transposition	49
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	50

V. Other extensions	50
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	50
P. Luxembourg – Legislative techniques	50
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	51
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	51
III. Timeliness of transposition	52
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation / Other extensions	52
V. Possible infringements of EC law	52
Q. Malta – Legislative techniques	52
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	53
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	53
III. Timeliness of transposition	53
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	54
V. Other extensions	54
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	54
R. Netherlands – Legislative techniques	55
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	56
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	56
III. Timeliness of transposition	56
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	56
V. Other extensions	57
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	58
S. Poland – Legislative techniques	58
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	59
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	59
III. Timeliness of transposition	60
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	60
V. Other extensions	61
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	61
T. Portugal – Legislative techniques
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	62
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	63
III. Timeliness of transposition	63
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	63
V. Other extensions	63
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	64
U. Slovakia – Legislative techniques	64
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	65
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	65
III. Timeliness of transposition	66
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	66

V. Other extensions	66
VI. Possible Infringements	66
V. Slovenia – Legislative techniques	67
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	67
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	67
III. Timeliness of transposition	68
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	68
V. Other extensions	68
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	68
W. Spain – Legislative techniques	69
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	70
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	70
III. Timeliness of transposition	71
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	71
V. Other extensions	72
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	72
X. Sweden – Legislative techniques	73
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	73
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	74
III. Timeliness of transposition	75
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	75
V. Other extensions	75
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	75
Y. United Kingdom – Legislative techniques
I. State of consumer protection in the field of the Directives before transposition	76
II. Legislative techniques of transposition	77
III. Timeliness of transposition	77
IV. Use of minimum harmonisation	77
V. Other extensions	77
VI. Possible infringements of EC law	78

Part 2:

Transposition of the individual Directives

A. Doorstep Selling Directive (85/577)
Executive summary	79
1. Transposition deficiencies	79
2. Enhancement of protection	79
a. Extension of scope	79
b. Use of options and exemptions	80
c. Use of minimum clause	81
d. Additional consumer protection instruments not provided for by the Directive	81

3. Inconsistencies or ambiguities	81
4. Gaps in the Directive	82
5. Potential barriers to (cross-border) trade	82
6. Conclusions and recommendations	82
I. Legislation in the member states before transposition of the Doorstep Selling Directive	83
II. Scope	83
1. Persons covered under the Directive	84
a. Consumer	84
b. Trader	85
2. Situations falling within the scope of the Directive	87
a. General application	87
aa. Expanding the list of doorstep situations	87
bb. Goods and services	89
cc. Offers and/or unilateral legal acts	90
dd. Contracts negotiated in a doorstep situation, but concluded subsequently	91
ee. Visits requested by the Consumer	91
b. Exemptions provided for in the Doorstep Selling Directive	93
aa. Art. 3 para. 1 (Contracts under 60 ECU)	93
bb. Art. 3 para 2	93
c. Burden of proof	95
III. Consumer protection instruments	95
1. Information requirements	95
2. Right of withdrawal	97
a. Length of withdrawal period	97
b. Start of the withdrawal period	99
c. Postal Rule / Dispatching Rule	100
d. Formal requirements	101
e. Effects of withdrawal	103
3. Other consumer protection instruments in the field of doorstep selling	106
Bibliography	107
B. Package Travel Directive (90/314)
Executive Summary	108
1. Transposition deficiencies	108
2. Enhancement of protection	108
a. Extension of scope	108
b. Use of minimum clause	109
3. Use of options	109
4. Inconsistencies or ambiguities	109
5. Gaps in the Directive	110
6. Potential barriers to (cross-border) trade	110
7. Conclusions and recommendations	111
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Package Travel Directive	112
II. Scope of application	114
1. Consumer	114
a. Transposition in general	114

b. Transposition in particular	115
aa. The principal contractor	116
bb. The other beneficiaries	117
cc. The transferee	117
2. Organiser	118
a. Transposition in general	119
b. Transposition in particular	121
aa. Overview	121
bb. Variations	121
cc. Trade licence requirement	123
3. Retailer	124
a. Overview	124
b. Transposition in particular	125
4. Package	127
a. Transposition in general	127
b. Transposition in particular	129
5. Contract	131
a. Transposition in general	131
b. Transposition in particular	132
III. Consumer protection instruments	133
1. Information Duties	133
a. Travel Brochure	133
aa. Transposition in general	134
bb. Transposition in particular	135
(1) Transposition of the Directive's information requirements	135
(2) Additional information duties	136
b. Pre-contractual information duties	139
aa. Transposition in general	139
bb. Transposition in particular	140
(1) The obligated party	140
(2) Time for providing information	141
(3) Method for providing information	141
(4) Content of pre-contractual information	142
(a) Information requirements in the Directive	142
(b) Additional information requirements	144
(c) Exemptions from information requirements	144
c. Information before the start of the journey	145
aa. The obligated party	146
bb. Timeframe for providing information	146
cc. Method for providing information	147
dd. Content of the information requirements	148
(1) Items of information listed in Art. 4(1)(b)	148
(2) Additional information requirements	149
(3) Exemptions from information requirements	149
d. Elements to be included in the contract	150
aa. Inclusion of the elements	150
bb. Timing for inclusion of the elements	151
cc. Elements of the contract	151

(1) Elements in the annex (and some variations in detail)	151
(2) Additional elements	153
(3) Exemptions	154
e. Information requirements with regard to all terms of the contract	155
f. General prohibition of misleading information	157
g. Sanctions for non-compliance with information duties	157
2. Restrictions on price revision	158
a. Legislative transposition technique	159
b. Transposition in particular	159
aa. Increase “and” decrease in price	159
bb. Conditions for price revision	160
cc. Period	161
dd. Other deviations	162
3. Consumer Rights	162
a. Right to transfer the booking	162
aa. Party to which notice must be given	163
bb. Timeframe for giving notice	164
cc. Form for giving notice	165
dd. Liability	166
b. Consumer rights in the case of significant alterations	166
aa. Legal environment for consumer rights granted under the Directive	166
bb. Consequences of an alteration to the terms by the organiser	167
(1) Requirements for the right of cancellation	168
(a) Significant alteration to the essential terms	168
(b) Obligation to notify the consumer	169
(2) Consumer rights after notification of a significant alteration	170
(3) Duty of the consumer to give notice of his decision	171
(4) Effects of the cancellation by the consumer or by the organiser	172
(5) Compensation under member states’ laws governing non-performance	174
4. Additional duties for the organiser	175
a. Obligation to make alternative arrangements	175
b. Duty to provide equivalent return transport and compensation	178
c. Duty to make prompt efforts in cases of complaint	179
5. Liability	181
a. Liability of organiser and/or retailer	181
b. Liability for damages and exemptions	183
c. Limitation on amount of damages to be paid	184
aa. According to international conventions	184
bb. Limitations on damages other than personal/physical damages	185
d. Loss of enjoyment	188
e. Communication of any shortcomings in performance	188
f. Assistance to consumer in difficulty	190
6. Security in the event of insolvency	192
Bibliography	196
C. Unfair Contract Terms Directive (93/13)
Executive Summary	197
1. Transposition deficiencies	197

2. Enhancement of Protection	199
a. Extension of scope	199
b. Use of options	199
c. Use of minimum clauses	199
3. Inconsistencies or Ambiguities	200
4. Gaps in the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	201
5. Potential Barriers to (Cross Border) Trade	202
6. Conclusions and Recommendations	202
I. Introduction: Policy reasons for monitoring pre-formulated terms	203
1. The law in the Member States prior to transposition of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	203
2. Model of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	204
3. The law in the Member States following transposition of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	205
II. Legal framework in the Member States	206
1. Austria (AT)	206
2. Belgium (BE)	206
3. Cyprus (CY)	207
4. Czech Republic (CZ)	207
5. Denmark (DK)	208
6. Estonia (EE)	208
7. Finland (FI)	209
8. France (FR)	209
9. Germany (DE)	210
10. Greece (EL)	211
11. Hungary (HU)	211
12. Ireland (IE)	212
13. Italy (IT)	213
14. Latvia (LV)	213
15. Lithuania (LT)	214
16. Luxembourg (LU)	214
17. Malta (MT)	215
18. Netherlands (NL)	215
19. Poland (PL)	216
20. Portugal (PT)	217
21. Slovakia (SK)	217
22. Slovenia (SL)	218
23. Spain (ES)	218
24. Sweden (SE)	219
25. United Kingdom (UK)	220
III. Scope of application	221
1. Consumer, Seller and Supplier, Public-sector undertakings	221
a. B2C, B2B and P2P Contracts	221
b. Definition of consumer	222
c. Definition of seller or supplier	223
d. Public Sector Undertakings	224
2. Exclusion of specific contracts	224

a. Contracts in the area of succession rights, family, employment and company law	224
b. Real property contracts	224
3. Exclusion of specific contractual terms	225
a. Contractual terms based on mandatory provisions	225
b. Individually negotiated terms	226
IV. Assessing the fairness of contract terms according to Art. 3	227
1. Concept of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	227
2. The form which the general clause has taken in the Member States	228
3. Transposition of the Annex in the Member States	232
a. Legal nature of the Annex	232
b. Transposition of the Annex in the Member States	233
1 st Table: Transposition of the Annex No 1 lit. a-q of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	234
2 nd Table: Transposition of Annex No 2 of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	239
4. Legal consequences of unfairness	240
a. Concept of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	240
aa. Non-binding nature of unfair terms	240
bb. Consequences for the contractual term and the contract as a whole	241
b. Transposition in the Member States	242
aa. Absolute nullity	242
bb. Relative nullity	242
cc. Unclear legal situation	243
dd. Alteration, amendment and adjustments of terms and contracts	244
ee. Splitting terms into a valid and unfair part	244
ff. Consequences for the contract as a whole	245
c. Compensation and/or punitive damages	245
V. Requirement of transparency according to Art. 5	245
1. Drafting of terms in plain and intelligible language	245
a. Requirements of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	245
b. Transposition of Art. 5, sent. 1 in the Member States	246
c. Interpretation of the requirement of transparency in the Member States	247
2. Consequences of lack of transparency	248
a. Requirements of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	248
b. Transposition of the contra proferentem rule in the Member States	249
c. Further legal consequences according to Member State law	249
aa. Non-incorporation of terms which lack transparency	249
bb. Assessment of transparency within a content review	250
cc. Unclear legal situations	250
3. Conclusions	251
VI. Collective proceedings according to Art. 7(2)	251
1. Overview	251
2. Administrative control of unfair terms	252
a. The role of public bodies in the Member States	252
b. Investigatory powers of public bodies	253
c. Negotiation and guidelines	254
d. Power of public bodies to issue orders	254

3. Judicial review of unfair terms	256
a. Types of actions in the Member States	256
b. Standing to apply for an injunction	257
c. Effects of collective actions: Relativity of res judicata	258
4. Conclusions	259
VII. Practical impact of the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	259
1. Impact on the level of consumer protection	259
2. Additional burdens or costs for traders	260
3. Particular difficulties with transposing the Unfair Contract Terms Directive	260
Bibliography	261
D. Timeshare Directive (94/47)
Executive summary	262
1. Transposition deficiencies	262
2. Enhancement of protection	262
a) Extension of scope	262
b) Use of minimum clause	263
c) Other instruments	263
3. Use of options	263
4. Inconsistencies or ambiguities	263
5. Potential barriers to (cross-border) trade	264
6. Conclusions and recommendations	264
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Timeshare Directive	265
II. Scope of application	267
1. Personal scope	267
a. Purchaser	267
aa. Transposition technique	267
bb. Content of the definitions	268
b. Vendor	269
2. Situations falling in the scope	271
a. Contracts	271
b. Immovable property	273
III. Consumer protection instruments	275
1. Information duties, Art. 3	275
a. Information document (prospectus)	275
aa. Information provided in the information document (prospectus) forms an integral part of the contract	276
bb. Changes resulting from circumstances beyond the vendor's control	276
cc. Advertising shall indicate the possibility of obtaining the information document	277
b. Information duties in the contract	278
2. Requirements with regard to form and language of the information document and the contract	280
a. Formal requirements for the contract	280
b. Language of the contract and the information document, Art. 4, 2 nd indent	280
c. Option stated in Art. 4(1) 2 nd indent, sent. 2	282

d. Certified translation of the contract in the language of the member state in which the immovable property is situated	283
e. Sanctions for non-compliance with the form and language requirements	283
3. Right of withdrawal	284
a. Information duty	284
b. Withdrawal period	285
aa. Right of withdrawal within 10 calendar days of both parties signing the contract	285
bb. Right of withdrawal in case of lack of information	288
cc. Withdrawal period, if the information is provided within the three months	290
dd. Withdrawal period, if missing information is not provided within three months	290
ee. Additional right of withdrawal	291
c. Formal requirements for exercising the withdrawal	292
d. Dispatching rule	294
e. Costs	295
aa. Art. 5(3)	295
bb. Art. 5(4)	296
4. Prohibition of advance payments before the end of the withdrawal period	298
a. Prohibition of advanced payments	298
b. Table: Prohibition of advanced payments	299
c. Refund of sums paid	300
5. Credit agreements	301
6. Provisions transposing this Directive shall be binding	302
7. Private International Law	303
8. Other consumer protection instruments	305
Bibliography	305
E. Distance Selling Directive (97/7)
Executive summary	307
1. Transposition deficiencies	307
2. Enhancement of protection	307
a. Extension of scope	307
b. Use of options	307
c. Use of minimum clause	308
3. Inconsistencies or ambiguities	308
4. Gaps in the Directive	309
5. Potential barriers to (cross-border) trade	309
6. Conclusions and recommendations	309
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Distance Selling Directive	310
II. Scope of application	311
1. Consumer	311
a. Legislative techniques	311
b. Content of the definitions	312
aa. Inclusion of certain legal persons	312

bb. Clarification of ‘mixed’ purpose cases	313
Overview: ‘mixed’ purpose transactions as consumer contract	314
cc. Extension to certain professionals	314
Overview: extension to certain professionals	315
dd. Examples for variations in wording	315
2. Supplier	316
3. Contracts falling within the scope of the Directive	318
a. Definition of “distance contract”	318
b. Definition of “means of distance communication”	318
c. Definition of “operator of a means of communication”	320
d. Exemptions provided by Art. 3 of the Distance Selling Directive	322
aa. Contracts concluded by means of automatic vending machines or automated commercial premises	322
bb. Contracts concluded with telecommunications operators through the use of public payphones, Art. 3(1) 3 rd indent	322
cc. Contracts concluded for the construction and sale of immovable property, Art. 3(1) 4 th indent	323
dd. Contracts concluded at an auction, Art. 3(1) 5 th indent	323
ee. Partial exemption of contracts for the supply of foodstuffs etc. supplied by regular roundsmen, Art. 3(2) 1 st indent	324
ff. Partial exemption of contracts for the provision of accommodation, transport, catering or leisure services, Art. 3(2) 2 nd indent	326
III. Consumer protection instruments	327
1. Information duties	327
a. Pre-contractual information	327
aa. “In good time” prior to the conclusion of the contract	328
bb. Additional pre-contractual information obligations	328
b. Written Confirmation, Art. 5	331
aa. Formal requirements	332
bb. Time of the confirmation	333
cc. Information to be provided in any event, Art. 5(1), sent. 2	334
dd. Exception from Art. 5(1) for services performed through the use of a means of distance communication	335
c. Sanctions for breach of information duties	336
aa. Prolongation of withdrawal period along Art. 6(1)	337
bb. Injunctions	338
cc. Right of competitors to claim for damages	338
dd. Fines under criminal or administrative law	339
ee. Other private law consequences	339
2. Right of withdrawal	340
a. Exceptions to the right of withdrawal	340
aa. Exception to the right of withdrawal if performance of services has begun before the end of the seven working day period (Art. 6(3) 1 st indent)	340
bb. Exception to the right of withdrawal in the case of goods or services, the price of which is dependent on fluctuations in the financial market (Art. 6(3) 2 nd indent)	340

cc. Exception to the right of withdrawal in the case of goods made to the consumer's specifications etc. (Art. 6(3) 3 rd indent)	341
dd. Exception to the right of withdrawal with respect to audio or video recordings, or computer software (Art. 6(3) 4 th indent)	342
ee. Exception to the right of withdrawal with respect to newspapers, periodicals and magazines (Art. 6(3) 5 th indent)	343
ff. Exception to the right of withdrawal with respect to gaming and lottery services (Art. 6(3) 6 th indent)	344
b. Formal requirements for the exercise of the right of withdrawal	344
c. Withdrawal period	345
aa. Length of period	345
bb. Start of period	347
(1.) Start of period in case of delivery of goods	347
(2.) Start of period in case of provision of services	348
cc. Postal rule / dispatching rule	348
d. Effects of withdrawal	349
e. Cancellation of credit agreement	351
3. Performance	352
a. Obligation to execute the order within a maximum of 30 days	352
b. Obligation of supplier to inform and refund in case of unavailability of the goods or services ordered (Art. 7 (2))	353
c. Use of option granted in Art. 7(3) of the Distance Selling Directive	355
4. Payment by card	355
5. Inertia selling	357
a. Prohibition of the supply of goods or services to a consumer without their being ordered	357
b. Exemption of the consumer from the provision of any consideration in cases of unsolicited supply; absence of a response shall not constitute consent.	358
6. Restrictions on the use of certain means of distance communication	359
IV. Use of options provided in the Directive	360
1. Option of member states to allow the supplier to provide the consumer with goods or services of equivalent quality and price	360
2. Option of member states to place burden of proof on the supplier	361
3. Option of member states to provide for voluntary supervision by self-regulatory bodies	361
4. Option of member states to ban the marketing of certain goods or services, particularly medicinal products, within their territory by means of distance contracts	362
Bibliography	363
F. Price Indication Directive (98/6)
Executive Summary	364
1. Transposition deficiencies	364
2. Enhancement of protection	364
a. Extension of scope	364
b. Use of minimum clause	364
3. Use of options	365
4. Inconsistencies or ambiguities	365

5. Gaps in Directive 98/6	365
6. Potential barriers to (cross border) trade	365
7. Conclusions and recommendations	365
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Price Indication Directive 98/6	366
II. Scope of application	366
1. Consumer	366
2. Trader	369
3. Situations falling in the scope of application	371
Table: Extension to services	371
4. Selling price	371
5. Unit price	372
6. Products sold in bulk	374
III. Consumer protection instruments	374
1. Formal requirements (transparency) Art. 4	374
2. Sanctions (Art. 8)	375
IV. Use of options provided in Directive 98/6	377
1. Products supplied in the course of the provision of a service	377
2. Sales by auction and sales of works of art and antiques	377
3. Products for which indication of unit price would not be useful	378
4. Indication if unit price were to constitute an excessive burden for certain small retail businesses	380
Bibliography	382
G. Injunctions Directive (98/27)
Executive summary	383
1. Transposition deficiencies	383
2. Enhancement of protection	383
a. Use of options	383
b. Use of minimum clause (i.e. more stringent provisions in the field covered by the Directive)	384
c. Extension of scope	384
d. Other measures enhancing consumer protection (i.e. more stringent provisions in fields not covered by the Directive)	384
3. Inconsistencies	384
4. Potential barriers to trade	385
5. Conclusions and recommendations	385
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Injunctions Directive	386
II. General comments	387
III. Procedural rules	388
1. Article 1(2) – Protection of “collective interests” of consumers	388
2. Article 2 – Actions for an injunction	389
a. Action for an order for the cessation or prohibition of an infringement	389
aa. Availability of summary procedure	390
b. Order for publication of decision	391
c. Order for payments into the public purse	392
d. Private International Law	393
3. Article 3 – Qualified entities	393
4. Article 4 – Intra-Community infringements	396

a. Recognising qualified entities from another EU member state	396
b. List of qualified entities published in the Official Journal	398
5. Article 5 – Prior consultation	399
6. Annex	401
IV. Use of the minimum harmonisation clause	402
V. General comments on adequacy of implementation of the Directive	403
1. Difficulties encountered during the transposition process	403
2. Gaps in the Directive	404
3. Other enforcement mechanisms	405
VI. Conclusions and recommendations	405
Bibliography	406
H. Consumer Sales Directive (99/44)
Executive summary	407
1. Transposition deficiencies	407
2. Enhancement of protection	408
a. Use of options	408
b. Use of minimum clause (i.e. more stringent provisions in the field covered by the Directive)	408
c. Extension of scope	409
d. Other measures enhancing consumer protection (i.e. more stringent provisions in fields not covered by the Directive)	409
3. Inconsistencies	409
4. Consumer protection gaps	409
5. Potential barriers to trade	410
6. Conclusions and recommendations	410
I. Member state legislation prior to the adoption of the Consumer Sales Directive	411
II. Scope of application	413
1. General scope	413
2. Definition of ‘consumer’	413
3. Definition of ‘seller’	416
4. Definition of ‘consumer goods’	417
a. Exclusion of goods sold at public auction from the meaning of “consumer goods” (Art. 1 para. (3))	418
5. Definition of ‘sale’	419
III. Consumer protection instruments	420
1. Conformity with the contract	420
a. “Conformity with the contract” requirement in general (Art. 2)	420
aa. Requirement to deliver conforming goods	420
bb. Presumption of conformity	421
cc. Criteria for presuming conformity (Art. 2 para. (2) lit. (a)-(d) generally)	421
dd. Time at which conformity is assessed	423
b. Public Statements and exclusions (Art. 2 para. (2) lit. (d) and Art. 2 para. (4))	424
c. Exclusion of matters of which consumer is aware (Art. 2 para. (3))	425
d. Provision on goods to be installed (Art. 2 para. (5))	426
2. Consumers’ rights in cases of non-conformity	426

a. Consumers' rights in cases of non-conformity in general (Art. 3)	426
aa. Implementation of the remedies	426
bb. Consumer choice between remedies	427
b. The "disproportionality" criterion (Art. 3 para. (3))	427
ba. Impossibility	428
c. "Free of charge" (Art. 3 para. (4))	428
d. Time limits on seller's liability	429
aa. Two-year time period	429
bb. Option: reduced period for second-hand goods	430
cc. Option: duty to notify lack of conformity within 2 months	431
dd. Recital option: suspension of two-year period	432
ee. Presumption of non-conformity during first 6 months	433
e. No rescission for 'minor' lack of conformity (Art. 3 para. (6))	434
f. Rescission and period-of-use allowance	435
g. Calculation of price reduction	435
3. Guarantees	436
4. The Right of redress	438
5. Mandatory nature of the provisions	439
IV. Use of the minimum harmonisation clause (Art. 8 para. (2))	440
1. Higher level of protection for consumers	440
a. Scope of application	440
aa. Liability of the producer	441
b. Conformity requirement	442
c. Remedies	444
d. Time limits	445
e. Guarantees	446
V. General comments on adequacy of implementation of the Directive	447
1. Difficulties encountered during the transposition process	447
2. Gaps in the Directive	448
VI. Conclusions and recommendations	449
Bibliography	451

Part 3:

Common structures in the DirectivesA. The notion of "consumer"

I. Introduction	453
1. European Community law	453
2. Overview	455
II. Legislative techniques in member states	455
III. Extension of the notion of consumer in member states	457
1. Notion of the final addressee	458
2. Extension to businesspersons concluding atypical contracts	458
3. Protection of certain legal persons	460
4. Protection of employees	461
IV. "Mixed" purpose transactions	462
1. Community law	462
2. Classification in member states	463

V. Protection of founding activities	463
1. Community law	463
2. Member states' law	464
VI. Final conclusions	464
1. Issues to be considered for a review of the acquis	464
2. Full harmonisation?	465
B. The notion of "business"
I. European Community law	465
1. Common features	466
2. Intention of the business to make a profit (animo lucri)	466
3. "Acting in the name or on behalf of a trader"	467
4. Inclusion of legal persons/bodies of public law	467
II. Legislative techniques in member states	468
III. Content of the definitions in member states	468
1. Intention of the business to make a profit (animo lucri)	469
2. "Acting in the name or on behalf of a trader"	469
3. Inclusion of legal persons/bodies of public law	470
IV. Final conclusions	470
C. Right of withdrawal
I. Introduction	471
II. Existing withdrawal rights in the acquis	472
1. Doorstep Selling Directive	472
2. Package Travel Directive	472
3. Unfair Contract Terms Directive	472
4. Timeshare Directive	472
5. Distance Selling Directive	472
6. Price Indications Directive	473
7. Injunctions Directive	473
8. Consumer Sales Directive	473
9. Other directives outside the scope of this study	473
10. ECJ case-law with general importance for a right of withdrawal	474
III. Issues to be considered for a review of the acquis	474
1. Length of period	477
2. Beginning of period	477
3. Computation of period	478
4. Dispatch rule	478
5. Rights and obligations during the period for withdrawal	479
6. Obligation to inform about right of withdrawal	479
a. Formal requirements	479
b. Language	479
c. Content of the information	480
7. Point in time when information about the right of withdrawal has to be given	480
8. Sanctions in case of breach of the information obligation	480
9. Exercise of right of withdrawal, in particular formal requirements	481
10. Effect of withdrawal for contractual obligations	481
11. Effect of withdrawal with regard to credit agreements	481

12. Rules for the unravelling of contract after withdrawal	481
13. Relation of withdrawal to other remedies	482
D. Information duties
I. Introduction	482
II. Existing information obligations in the 8 directives	482
1. Doorstep Selling Directive	482
2. Directive 90/314/EEC (Package Travel)	484
3. Unfair Contract Terms Directive	487
4. Timeshare Directive	487
5. Distance Selling Directive	489
6. Price Indications Directive	490
7. Injunctions Directive	491
8. Consumer Sales Directive	491
III. Issues common to several directives	491
1. Form in which information to be provided	492
2. Sanctions for failing to provide information	492
3. Overlapping information obligations	493
a. Pre-contractual information where package holiday sold by distance selling	493
b. Confirmation of information where package holiday sold by distance selling	494
IV. Overall recommendations for the acquis review	496
 Part 4:
Recommendations
A. Creating common uniform definitions and basic rules for all consumer law directives	497
B. Restructuring the consumer acquis through a horizontal consumer protection measure	498
C. Issues concerning individual directives	500
I. Doorstep Selling	500
II. Package Travel	501
III. Unfair Terms	501
IV. Timeshare	501
V. Distance Selling	502
VI. Consumer Sales	502
VII. Injunctions Directive	502
VIII. Unit Prices	502
D. Full harmonisation and remaining scope for member states	502
E. Other matters to be considered	503
I. Translation issues	503
II. A cross-border measure?	504
III. Improving cross-border redress	504

Annex A:
Abbreviations	505
Annex B:
European Community Sources of Law
A. Treaties and Convention	509
B. Regulations	509
C. Directives	510
D. European Court of Justice Judgments	512
Annex C:
National Legislation	515